

Junior Telecommunication Engineer (Telecom System Integration)

Professional are responsible for identifying, analyzing, and relating business demands. Your responsibilities include aligning priorities, planning and actions to the overall business objectives. And involve business stakeholders. You will share and communicate knowledge and innovation. You have knowledge of the fundamentals of the Semco business model and the value chain.

The function is directly responsible to assist the Project Manager in all aspects of the assigned project.

- Assist Project Engineers in producing telecom system drawings for approval submission
- Check system compliance for project requirements and translate to project documents
- Checking of equipment ordered for a specific project, ensuring technical compliance with relevant specification requirements
- Provide project progress updates and status reports to Project Manager
- Provide technical support to system assembly and fabrication, and ensure assembly is done according to project requirements
- Assist Project Engineers to organize and plan usage of available resources to achieve optimal performance and cost efficiency for each project
- Assist Project Engineer to report, follow-up and resolve on non-conformance issues and customers' complaints
- To maintain Semco's quality policy and take active part in implementing quality system
- Critical adherence to deadlines
- Assist the Project Engineer to monitor project deliverables in terms of delivery and quality control
- Assist in site commissioning if required

We are looking for individuals with the following qualifications and experience:

Education: Bachelor's Degree in Telecommunications, Electrical & Electronics Engineering, Computer Engineering, or IT is required

Experience: Entry-level candidates welcome

Personal Qualities:

Excellent analytical and problem-solving skills.

Strong attention to detail and organizational skills.

Team player with a positive and proactive attitude.

Excellent communication and interpersonal skills (written and spoken English).

Ability to work independently and as part of a team.