Production Operator offshore

•Offshore position in Esbjerg, Denmark
•2/2 can be day or night
•12 hours shift
•Day shift and night shift will be rotated on every alternate offshore trip
•Participation in required courses must be expected during home period
•Start date: late Q1 or early Q2 2027

Scope of Work

•Operate the facilities on a day-to-day basis
•Ensure operations are executed within operating scope and in accordance with company rules and procedures
•Perform the first degree of maintenance
•Act as Area Authority, opening at location permit to work (final checks, TBT, Hazard identification, permit to work compliance etc.)
•Conduct the daily rounds to monitor the facilities, log data, check integrity threats, check safe operation of third parties)
•Prepare and execute isolations and breaking containment verifying and ensuring safety before any work is released
•Perform gas, NORM and other testing required to verify equipment is safe to work on for other teams
•Perform random audits on working locations
•Coordinate the daily production team activities

Qualifications/Experience required

•Educational background as process technician, skilled craftsman or similar with craftsman diploma
•5 years of experience with production, preferably from oil and gas industry
•must have work experience as Production Operator in the northern part of Europe
•Good analytical skills, structured and able to follow instructions closely •Must be able to communicate effectively in English. Danish is an advantage.
•Clear focus on HSE

Welcome to Semco Maritime

Please submit your application as soon as possible if you would like to join our great team. Candidates will be invited for interviews on an ongoing basis.